

“Training hubs will provide an opportunity to meet the educational needs of the multi-disciplinary primary care team, bringing together NHS organisations, community, local authorities and education establishments”

Health Education England

UNDERGRADUATE NURSE PLACEMENTS	THE HEALTHCARE APPRENTICE SCHEME	THE GENERAL PRACTICE NURSE READY SCHEME	THE ADVANCED CLINICAL PRACTITIONER SCHEME
Placements are needed across Leeds for undergraduate nurses Can you support a student nurse?	Wanting to increase the clinical healthcare support workforce in your GP practice?	General Practice Nurse vacancy? Would you consider employing a newly qualified nurse?	Wanting to develop Advanced Clinical Practitioner roles in your GP practice?
Student Nurse Placements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> This scheme provides learning placements across the Leeds area in order to secure the primary care workforce of the future. The practice will receive £24 per day per student Students will be on 8-12 week placements Fully supported by the Leeds Primary Care Workforce and Training Hub 	Healthcare Apprenticeship Scheme <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Expands the Health Care Assistant workforce within primary Care In partnership with Leeds City College The practice will receive £6800, £500 of this will need to be paid to the college Training available including Level 3 Diploma in Healthcare support, Care Certificate, Dementia awareness training, Venepuncture, ECG, Wound care, Motivational interviewing and Health promotion and First aid The HCA apprentice must work a minimum of 30 hours per week and must be paid no less than £5.60 per hour 	General Practice Nurse Ready Scheme <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Helps to integrate newly qualified nurses in Primary Care Helps to expand the nursing workforce within Primary Care The practice will receive £1,500 after 12 weeks of employment and £1,500 after they have gained the mentorship qualification The practice will have £5,000 to spend on education and training Educational plan provided 	The Advanced Clinical Practitioner Scheme <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Open to practice nurses, paramedics, physiotherapists and pharmacists who wish to develop their skills in their area 3 year University course Funding available of £36,000

All schemes are fully supported by the Leeds Primary Care Workforce and Training Hub, Please contact leedsprimarycare.wth@nhs.net for more details.